

JOHN OF GOD BRAZIL - HEALING TRIPS - BRAZILIAN HEALER

VISIT JOHN OF GOD IN BRAZIL WITH STEVE & DEBORA

John of God Brazil

“I would strongly recommend Steve to anyone who goes to see John of God. His advice and guidance helped me a lot in my healing process. He always made me feel at ease. I do not think that I could have gotten the results that I have now with my healing without him. His care, compassion and good sense of humor were just what I needed to make this healing trip wonderful.” Mavis Sara, Ft. Lauderdale, FL, US

THE CASA

JOHN OF GOD CASA

“Steve was a great guide when I took my two teenage children to Abadiania to see John of God. His planning, sensitivity and support meant that our visit was stress free, positive and understandable and that we were all able to properly benefit from our time there. He explained everything so well that we all felt at home right away. His kindness and guidance made all the difference.” - Theresa Clark, Bristol, England

Casa de Dom Inacio (The House of St. Ignatius) - John of God's Healing Center is located in Abadiania, in central Brazil, 1.5 hours from the country's capital Brasilia.

The Casa welcomes visitors of all religions and nationalities. Jewish rabbis, Hindu swamis, Protestants, Catholics, Muslims and Buddhists as well visitors from 28 countries have visited John of God.

John of God has recommended that first time visitors to Abadiania hire a guide since it takes a couple of weeks to understand the complex protocol regarding how things function at the Casa.

Hiring a guide also helps a person focus all of their energy and attention on their own healing and not worry about procedures, rules and what they should be doing.

It is recommended that a person come for a minimum of two weeks. All visitors are requested to dress in white on the days when they will be attending the Casa.

John of God's healing center is located on Avenida Frontal which is lined with cafes, restaurants, travel agencies, internet cafes, pharmacies, shops selling white clothes, jewelry and souvenirs.

John of God Tour Reservations

Going down to see John of God was on a completely last minute whim, and I had no idea whatsoever how to proceed. In looking at all the Casa guides online, as soon as I saw Steve's picture, I knew he would be perfect for me....and my intuition was absolutely correct! Steve met us at the airport and immediately took charge of all details, both large and small to ensure that our experience was stellar. Our group was small, (only seven people) all coming from the far corners of the world, but we formed a very tight and fun family immediately.
